JUDGE AYLETT COTTON

(Reprint from Redwood City Tribune of August 19)

In his 18 months on the bench, backed by a wide experience in the law dating back 40 years, Aylett R. Cotton has demonstrated capable and commonsence approach to the problems faced on the superior court bench.

Judge Cotton came of pioneer stock which goes back to John Cotton, first teacher in Boston; had the advantages of the best training which the West afforded in the Reid's School at Belmont, Stanford, which he entered on its opening day and from which he was the first student to be graduated, and Hastings.

The jurist's first grounding in law came from the teachings of his father, the late Judge A. R. Cotton, with whom he practiced law in San Francisco. In 1900 he went to Manila to become law clerk for William Howard Taft, former president and former chief justice of the supreme court; in 1904, while serving as major of Iloilo in the Philippine Islands, the young lawyer Cotton was named prosecuting attorney of Manila by former President Theodore Roosevelt.

In 1910 Judge Cotton became chief assistant district attorney of San Francisco, and during that tenure handled 11 grand juries. In 1920 he resigned, returning to private practice until elevated to the bench by Governor Merriam February 5, 1935.

During his long residence in San Mateo, dating from 1908, Judge Cotton has shown wide interest in civic and development affairs of his home city and county. He served San Mateo as councilman for eight years and was mayor for four years preceding his voluntary retirement from the civic post.

Of Judge Cotton, the county bar declares "that he possesses all the characteristics and attributes of equity and impartiality, and has tempered the use of the same with reasonable and proper judicial discretion."

Stanford Man Dies As Army Ship Crashes

Two army fliers, one of them a Stanford graduate and expert rifleman and boxer, were killed Tuesday when their pursuti ship caught fire during a power dive over a farm near Otsego, Mich. the United Press reported.

The victims, Lieut. William W. Harding, 25, of Los Angeles, graduate in 1932 of Stanford, and Private Francis Maier, 19, of Dowagiac, Mich., attached to the 52nd Service Company, were killed after they had bailed out of their blazing craft. Harding was attached to the 94th pursuit squadron at Selfridge Field.

Witnesses said the parachute of one of the fliers failed to open and the other hesitated too long before pulling his ripcord.

The bodies fell on the McGee farm. Death of the fliers were the first fatalities in connection with the army maneuvers In which are participating 24,000 enlisted men and members of the national guard.

At Stanford, Harding, tall and blond, was a light heavyweight boxer, and competed on the rifle team which brought national honors to the university. He was a member of Delta Chi fraternity.

CO-EDS GIVE UP PIPES

PALO ALTO (UP)—Efforts of Stanford co-eds to emancipate themselves to the extent of smoking pipes have failed. Lester Gunther, cigar counter custodian at the Stanford Union, says that of the dozen who originally bought pipes and tobacco supplies, few ever came back.

Wagnon Drops Machine Suit

Pair of Slot Devices Will Be Destroyed At Los Gatos

L. B. Wagnon, Burlingame slot machine owner whose devices have been the subject of court action at Los Gatos, has dismissed his damage suit there in which he asked $300 or return of two "vending" machines confiscated in a raid.

Through Attorney Earl C. Mahoney, also of Burlingame, Wagnon dropped the action against Police Chief H. C. Noble, who confiscated the machine in a Los Gatos hotel, just a few minutes after Judge A. H. Bell had set the case for hearing August 27.

Judge Bell granted Mahoney's request for dismissal but Town Attorney D. T. Jenkins said he would ask a court order from Bell that the slot machine be demolished.

Three law suits grew out of the seizure by Chief Noble of two slot machines in a raid on the Hotel Lyndon early in June.

Lewis Neumann, hotel proprietor, was arrested for violation of the state gambling law for possession of the machines and paid $100 fine.

Wagnon on July 9 sued Chief Noble for $300 or the machines, and said that he, Wagnon, was the legal owner of the machines.

Wagnon was arrested July 10 on a complaint by Chief Noble that Wagnon had conspired with Neumann to violate the law, and Wagnon consequently paid $200 fine.

Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest president of the United States to take office. He was 42 at the time.

Reward Spurs Slayer Search

Sailors Offer $1000 To Aid Cherbourgh Mystery Solution

With all clues, except the chain which bound his body, apparently exhausted, search for new ones in the murder of R. L. Cherbourgh was spurred today with the posting of $1,000 reward by the Sailors' Union of the Pacific for information leading to the arrest of his slayer.

Police of San Francisco and Alameda counties based their one hope for solution of the mystery on the possibility of discovering the place where the chains were made, sold or used.

San Francisco police, aided by Deputy Sheriffs Harold Webb and Grover Mull of Alameda county, are canvassing boat companies, blacksmiths, hardware merchants, ships chandlers and other places where such chains might be used or sold.

The sailors' union has two investigators at work on the case. Cherbourg, a member of the union, was found dead four days after he made an appointment with a union official to tell him "something very important." He failed to keep the appointment.

Cherbourgh's body was found, trussed with chains, near the Dumbarton Bridge on the Alameda county line.

Air Mail Does Best Business In Coast Area

Pacific coast residents are larger users of air mail on a per capita basis than any other section of the country, reveal figures just released on the air mail flown on the overnight and daylight schedules of United Air Lines on its Seattle-San Francisco-San Diego route.

The first six months of this year, Pacific coasters interchanged approximately 17,000,000 letters—far more on a per capita basis than were flown up and down the Atlantic seaboard.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS

Will have two main choices among the five candidates seeking your vote next Tuesday. They are:

CHOICE No. 1— Any one of four opposing candidates, each running on both Republican as well as Democratic tickets, each straddling the two conflicting parties now engaged in the most decisive political contest since the Civil War.
Each has studiously avoided even the mentioning of Roosevelt in order not to alienate Republican voters. Not one has come out for Rooseveltian principles of legislation. One is even a registered Republican who can think only of urging public parks as a campaign issue. Not one has even attempted to meet the issue, which is the need for militantly, fearlessly championing Pro-Roosevelt Democratic party principles in Sacramento, to carry ON WITH ROOSEVELT!

CHOICE No. 2— —WALTER BARUSCH, only Pro-Roosevelt Democrat not straddling two conflicting parties, whose name will be only on the Democratic ballot. Pledged in writing to champion all rights of ORGANIZED LABOR, to strive for ADEQUATE OLD AGE PENSIONS, for TAXATION BASED ON ABILITY TO PAY. Believes our greatest need is legislation leading toward ECONOMIC SECURITY FOR ALL. Only candidate announcing SPECIFIC legislation he will introduce, a bill COMPELLING all candidates to give a COMPLETE word picture of themselves, stating definitely their position on campaign issues.

2000 Persons Watch R. C. Firemen Drill

Between 2000 and 3000 persons watched the 30-evolution fire drill staged by the Redwood City Fire Department last night as a feature of the state firemen's convention at Lodi, and gave generous applause to the maneuvers which "went off without a hitch," Chief Mark Ryan reported.

Tonight a first aid team from the local department will put on a drill at the convention. Ten firemen, headed by Chief Ryan, went through the drills, which he said were "the biggest thing we ever pulled off." Assistant Chief Joe Lodi will be in charge of the six-man first aid team.

Noted Landscape Gardener Is Taken

BURLINGAME, Aug. 17—Charles J. Sutton, one of the peninsula's best known landscape designers and a resident of Burlingame for the past 42 years, died late Saturday at the Burlingame home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford. Sutton, besides having aided in planning the Burlingame Country Club, had charge of laying out the gardens of many extensive Hillsborough estates. Aged 77 years, Sutton, a native of England, was the husband of the late Louise Sutton. Funeral services will be tomorrow at the Wyckoff mortuary, Burlingame. Interment will be in Alta Mesa Cemetery.

Menu Flashes by Joan Andrews

During August the array of tree-and-vine-grown temptations in the markets is quite dazzling. Big, golden Elberta peaches; all kinds of melons and grapes; sweet, juicy Bartlett pears; plump, purple figs; exotic nectarines, and saucy, crisp Gravenstein apples. Not to mention the variety of berries available. For a gorgeous fruit salad, try combining as many of these fruits as you like with Persian melon balls and French dressing. Then fill the shell of half a Persian melon with this salad.

As a bedtime snack in the summertime, nothing tastes better than an apple and a glass of Golden State Milk. Try it tonight. Golden State Milk's rich, creamy flavor makes it a delightful beverage at any time.

An Open Letter To Mr. Alonzo Baker

Editor, Writer and Publisher
Mountain View, California

Dear Sir:

In the Mercury Herald you frankly confess that it will be most embarrassing to you to tell the voters exactly how you have voted on the exact measures which came before Congress in my terms. I did not ask you to argue with me. I asked you to tell the voters. My record is made. You have absolutely no public record on any public question. I restated my record—which is already a matter of official record in the roll calls of Congress. I gave you a chance and your only answer is that it is "irrelevant and immaterial." What is tricky about asking you to answer simply and clearly—as I had already answered?

You buy paid page advertisements to challenge me to a "debate." Do you think that you are competing for the class prize in the High School Debating Society?

You know that on Sunday morning last I offered to meet you over Station KQW. See Sunday's Mercury Herald or Monday's Evening News. You seem to be afraid to meet me there after you have definitely stated your position on each major piece of legislation. As you know, Mr. Baker, you would be compelled to file a copy of your radio speech in advance with the radio station and that permanent record might embarrass you.

Last night you stated on the radio that you could not use page advertisements because of the cost. At that very moment you were using a full-page advertisement in the Mercury Herald and you were the only one who has used full-page, eight-column advertisements.

Now, Mr. Baker, before we meet you must furnish the voters with a record. The newspapers will not charge you very much and it will take but little space to mark your ballot on these measures which came before Congress.

Just try to be accurate! You know that Congressmen must answer "Yes" or "No." If you are not familiar with the laws passed I will telegraph to Washington for copies for your use.

I have challenged your courage. I repeat that you do not dare to state exactly how you would have voted on the Bills which came before me as a Member of Congress. Tell the voters in writing "Yes" or "No" exactly what you would have done.

HERE ARE THE SPECIFIC QUESTIONS ASKED OF YOU:

Which ones are "tricky" questions?

WOULD YOU HAVE VOTED FOR

1. Guarantee of the Bank Deposits?
2. Federal Insurance of Building and Loan Deposits?
3. Cash Payment of "Bonus"?
4. Home Owners Loan Corporation?
5. Stock Exchange Regulation?
6. Wagner Labor Laws?
7. "Death Sentence" to Curb Absentee Public Holding Companies?
8. Restoring Benefits to Spanish War Veterans?
9. Work Relief Bill?
10. Public Works Bill?
11. C.C.C. Camps?
12. Soil Conservation Bill?
13. The Cut of One-half in Tax on California Wines?

Do You Favor Federal Gift To

1. San Jose Auditorium? $117,000
2. Santa Clara Water Conservation? ... 673,000

Do You Favor Federal Gift To

1. San Jose Harbor? $810,000
2. San Jose High School? 513,000

Should McGrath Have Secured

1. U. S. Purchase of 30,000 Tons of Our Surplus Prunes?
2. U. S. Purchase of 7,000 Boxes of Watsonville Apples?

1. Would you have voted for Social Security Act?
2. Do you favor Federal Gift for
   - A Eliminating Grade Crossings?
   - B Export Subsidy to Pear Growers?
   - C Widening San Jose-Monterey Road?

In last Friday's San Jose papers I offered to join with all candidates for Congress in submitting to each School Board, City Manager or Mayor, Water Conservation Board, Farm Organization, Labor Council, Retail Trade Association, Chamber of Commerce, Veterans' Organization, and other public bodies the following question:

"Have you had effective co-operation and service from Congressman McGrath?"

My committee agreed to publish all replies, but no candidate dared accept that method of finding out what our local officials and backers think of my record.

Which questions are irrelevant and immaterial?

Please, Mr. Baker, give the voters a chance to see what you would have done!

On the Guyer Prohibition Bill (to establish absolute prohibition in the District of Columbia) just give them a sample of what you would do in the future!

Just take the voters into your confidence!

Very truly,
JOHN J. McGRATH, M. C.

Atherton House Maid Held on Theft Charge

Unable to produce $250 cash bail, Miss Vivian Selfridge, 22-year-old maid employed until last week in the Atherton home of W. W. Adams, San Francisco grain broker, was being held in the county jail today accused of theft of approximately $100 worth of doilies, linen and heirlooms from the Adams home.

According to Police Chief J. E. Farrell, who with Deputy Probation Officer Mona Christensen, took Miss Selfridge into custody in San Francisco late yesterday, the maid quit her work at the Adams house Friday after being employed there a week. Shortly afterwards, Mrs. Adams missed a number of articles.

Referring to references presented by Miss Selfridge when she was employed, Mrs. Adams obtained several addresses, at one of which the girl was located.

The Right Man For the Office

Believe It Or.. NOT

The great newspaper and radio feature of Robert Ripley sprang from the truism that many true, unvarnished facts are scarcely within the realm of belief.

If you are a reader of political news and advertisements, you have probably encountered the claims and counter-claims of political aspirants which smack of pure hokum—"Believe it or not, I did so-and-so."

And when Candidates for Congress sling mud and hurl petty challenges, it is a pleasure to meet an honest candidate whose record and entire career crosses out the "not" in the consideration of his statements.

The purpose of this advertisement is to tell you that your vote for Congressman from this district need not be based on either hope or promise. The reputation, character, ability and sincerity of Frederick Peterson is unquestioned. His record proves him to be a man of Deeds, not Words.

Compare His Record

With the Ridiculous Claims and Quack Promises You Have Read

The Candidacy of Frederick Peterson has been endorsed by more than 700 business men, civic leaders and prominent residents of the Eighth Congressional District. They urge your active support of this outstanding candidate and commend his experience, judgement, character and honesty.

- Every bill introduced by him was passed by the Assembly—a striking tribute to his ability as a legislator.
- Author and vigorous leader of the investigation of State Building and Loan "pass book rackets" which has resulted in the saving of millions of dollars to small depositors.
- Veteran of the Spanish-American and World Wars, he now holds the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.
- Organizer and first Commander of American Legion Post 163.
- Leader in civic affairs for more than 15 years, he is a former City Councilman of Burlingame; organized and became president of the Chamber of Commerce in that city.
- As State Assemblyman, he was this year successful in obtaining allocations from the State and Federal Governments for improvement of El Camino Real, the Half Moon Bay Road, and the Coast Highway—ending the northern "bottleneck."

R. C. Firemen Answer Three Week-End Calls

Three fires, one of which burned camping equipment, gave city firemen week-end action.

The camp equipment was in the basement of a home in the 500 block on Katherine street. There was very little damage done, according to Chief Mark Ryan, who said the house residents had extinguished the flames with a fire hose prior to arrival of the firemen.

Late Sunday the firemen put out a grass fire in the rear of the home of L. Heiner, 1048 El Camino Real. Saturday night they extinguished flames in sawdust in the rear of the Garden City Products Company on Main street. No damage was reported in either fire.

"THANK YOU SENATOR"

"We, residents and business people who live along EL CAMINO REAL from one end of San Mateo County to the other, are grateful for your efforts in restoring to EL CAMINO REAL the designation of ROUTE 101. A week ago we awoke to the fact that the 101 designation had been transferred to the Bayshore highway.

"Through the press we learned that the transfer had been made largely through the influence of the Federal government, seeking the most direct line of travel across Santa Clara and San Mateo counties to the San Francisco bridges, without regard to the beauty of EL CAMINO REAL, or its historical significance, or our interests and wishes in the matter.

"We sought your aid, and YOU RESPONDED NOBLY. Once again EL CAMINO REAL IS ROUTE 101. SENATOR, WE THANK YOU."

★ ★ ★

The above quotations were taken from letters received today by STATE SENATOR HARRY L. PARKMAN, following announcement yesterday that EL CAMINO REAL had been restored as ROUTE 101.

Only an EXPERIENCED legislator with INFLUENCE and PRESTIGE could have brought the machinery of the State Government into play so quickly, and secured such IMMEDIATE and DEFINITE ACTION.

Crosby Handles Estate Of Boellaard Orphans

Administration of the estate left to Olga and Helen Boellaard, over whom is being waged a court battle for custody, was left Tuesday to Coroner William Crosby as public administrator.

Crosby's petition to settle the estate of the orphans was approved by Superior Judge A. R. Cotton. The estate consists principally of $6000 in insurance left by the little girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Boellaard, who were killed in a train-auto crash here July 16.

Continuation of the custody contest is set for September 16. Atty. James T. O'Keefe Jr., counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hugo, who are seeking the guardianship of the pair, said today, however, he expected developments in the case "within two or three days." Rev. Adrian Vlasoff of San Francisco also is asking guardianship of the persons and estates of the girls, who at present are living with the Hugos.

FIRE DESROYS HAYSTACK

Children playing with matches were blamed by Assistant Fire Chief Joe Lodi for the fire which shortly before 2 o'clock Tuesday burned a haystack and periled an automobile in the backyard of the Henry Trask home, 630 Whipple avenue. Mrs. Trask and a neighbor, Mrs. Viola Green, both turned in alarms. The flames reached within a few feet of the locked automobile of Mrs. Trask's sister, Mrs. Nola Crane.
